

Good Book of Prine, The

© 2015 by R. Bowdon

Key of D

Em A Bm G D A7 D

Intro: turnaround = end of verse

Lydia

D Starin' out the window of her Chevy SUV

D Countin' years she wasted with that lyin' SOB

D Best years of her life / as a poker player's wife

Em A Bm G Startin' over at the age of sixty-three-ee

D A7 D Hmm mm mm

Donald

D No one ever told him when the kids were grown and gone

D He'd be on his own again just like when he was young

D Best years of his life but not according to his wife

Em A Bm G In that game she was the queen he was the pawn

D A7 D Hmm mm mm

Chorus

G D But dreamin' just comes natural

A They learned that from the good book of Prine

G Through broken hearts and dirty windows

D G They can still find each other

D A Bm G Never mind they're running out of ti—me

D A D They learned that from the good book of Prine

bridge

G D They've heard preachers promise heaven when you die

A D But they tasted heaven back in sixty-nine

G D Bm Now starting over back again is daisies and sunshine

E A They learned that from the good book of Prine verse break then repeat bridge

D G Now they're shacking up together and their lives are pretty good

D A And they're keeping all those promises they never thought they would

D D7 G The best years of their lives / the ones that satisfy

Em A Bm G You know happiness is simply under stoo-ood

D A D They're together and their lives are pretty good repeat chorus

outro: change to 3/4 time

G D But dreamin' just comes natural

A A7 D like the first breath from a baby.....