

Like It's Going Out of Style

© 1993 By R. Bowdon

Key of D

Intro = 2 measures of D

D G D G D
As a boy I wandered far and wide as I learned to love the land
D G F#m E A A7
And I knew those hills and woods just like the back of my own hand
D F#m G Gm
And I heard the sweet soliloquy of a soft bed made of pine
D A G D G D G D G D
That calmed my mind in troubled times thereafter ...

D G D G D
When I was a young man I held my cards close to my vest
D G F#m E A
And more than once I stared into the face of sudden death
D F#m G Gm
And the fact that I survived it all owes a debt to lady luck
D A G D G D
She smiled on me and I returned the favor

Chorus

D Em A
And I took my chances / they were a long time a-comin'
D A A7
And I got my way / every once in a while
D G A
I sowed my seeds / they were a long time a-growin'
D A D D7
And I lived each day like it's goin' out of style

Bridge

G D G
High on hormones / tingling with exhilaration
E A A7
Roll those dice again

Verse break then second bridge

G D G
High on hormones / dizzy with anticipation
E A A7
Throw those bones again

D G D G D
By now I've seen my share of heartbreak, loser's blues and pain
D G F#m E A
But dreams come true I swear to you I'd live it all again
D F#m G Gm
Let's take that trail together, spend our money, save our souls
D A G D G D
This life we live is not a dress rehearsal

Chorus

D Em A
And we'll take our chances / they'll be a long time a-comin'
D A A7
And we'll get our way / every once in a while
D G A
We'll sow our seeds / they'll be a long time a-growin'
D A D G
And we'll live each day like it's goin' out of style ... aye ayle
D A G A7 D
we'll live each day like it's goin' out of style
