

Pour and Pray

© 2008 by R. Bowdon

key of C - tempo 74- Jim Mandolin - RDB open, C harp

^C I'm proud of all my scars / ^F they show I've had a life
^C I've been in the arena / ^F they prove I've had a wife
^C These dents on my guitar / ^F you can see 'em here today
^C They're just frozen testimony / ^F of all the beer joints that I've played ^C

B part

^F Proud of scars / ^{Dm} had a life / ^C the arena / ^G with my wife ^{G7}
^F My guitar / ^{Dm} here today / ^C all the beer joints / ^G that I've played ^C

I know I've got the blues / just like a flea has got a dog
I can feel 'em all around me / I can see 'em through the fog
So I keep drinking red wine / to make them go away
Bartender be my preacher / I'll pour and you can pray

Got the blues / like a dog / I can see 'em / though the fog
Drinking wine / go away / be my preacher / pour and pray

Break – once or twice through

Goodbye is just a word / that I have heard from you
I should've seen it coming / and known just what to do
I swear by all the angels / righteous ones that fell
I swear by all the devils / in heaven or in hell

Just a word / heard from you / seen it coming / what to do
Swear by all / devils fell / fell from heaven / straight to hell
Got the blues / like a dog / I can see 'em / though the fog
Drinking wine / go away / be my preacher / pour and pray

slowing

I'm proud of all my scars